General Information

1. It is suggested that you follow this thesis schedule to complete your thesis oral exams and to receive degree certificates. Please be noted that if you do not follow the schedule, you would have to postpone your oral exam to the next semester.
2. Length of study in the Master Program of Global Business: 2 to 4 years.
The 8th semester would be the last semester for all master students. Students who fail to complete all graduation requirements within 8 semesters will not receive any certificates.
3. If you are currently in your 7th or 8th semester, please report to the office as soon as possible.
4. All students are permitted with 2 oral exams, i.e., students who fail the first oral exam are allowed to retake the exam ONCE.
5. Please report to the office as soon as possible regarding any change in thesis, including thesis topics and advisors.
6. Please do NOT rush to book any plane tickets BEFORE receiving graduation certificates.

Advisor

1. Please hold meetings with your advisor regularly and take notes to keep track of all discussions and suggestions from your advisor in a blue record book.
2. For any purposes of presenting your thesis in a conference or publishing it in a journal, please ask for approval from your advisor in advance, for it is related to personal academic evaluation.
3. For any reasons that you decide to take academic leave or to postpone your oral exam to the next semester, please discuss with your advisor and report to the office.
4. If you wish to change advisors, please be noted that you might have to extend your thesis schedule, for more time will be required to work on a new topic with your new advisor.

Conferences

1. It is your own reasonability to find an international conference to attend as one of the graduation requirements.
2. Occasionally, we would forward conference information on the program website. Based on the topic fields on which the conference focuses, you can decide whether to attend or not.
3. Please visit the following websites to search for conferences in which you are interested:
